Two of our younger golfers, James Davis and Ryan Budda Deen, travelled to Catalina on the South Coast to represent North West last week in the NSWPSA Primary Golf Championships. More than 70 players from across the state took part in the carnival on a tough course. The local boys combined for an ambrose on the Tuesday and then played individual 18 hole events on Wednesday and Thursday.

Graham Moore was the winner of Tuesday's men's vets in a countback with Greg Brabant. Both finished with 38 points. Ross Tutt was next with 37 points and he was followed by John Tom and Jack Hepi with 35. Graham Moore won the putting with 25 putts and John Henderson was the 9-hole Super Vets winner.

Five women's teams travelled to Warialda on Wednesday to play the Warialda Open 4BBB. Teena Myler and Lou Cathie finished with 44 points to take 2nd spot in a countback. Each of these ladies won the longest drives in their divisions. Sandy Cook and Sue Urquhart paired up to take the scratch prize on the day.

Rodney Loy, 33 points, was the winner the men's Thursday's 12-hole comp defeating Barry Croft in a countback. Herb Cox was 3rd with 31 points. Nearest the pin was Barry Croft while Dave Ryan won the putting.

20 players hit off in Fridays Tradies comp. It was won by Liam McDonald with 26 points. Todd Scott was 2nd with 25.

The men played a modified stableford on Saturday. This format gives bonus points on each hole that a player scores under their handicap and penalises for anything over handicap. Sam Williamson playing off 24 had a great round which included 8 bonus point pars and a score of 55 points. This gave him a 5 point win over 2nd placed Ron Myler who finished with 50 points. Dave Wargent and Dave Ryan each finished with 47 while Ken Luxford and Peter Wallace picked up 44 each. Adrian King finished with 43 and then Col

Flood, Jed Leggett, Corey Borthwick and Tony Driscoll, 42.

Sandy Cook was the best of the ladies in Saturday's stableford when she finished with 35 points. Trudi Tonkin, Helen Lockwood and Leigh Hobbs finished with 34 points.

Greg Bushell took out Sunday's medley stableford with 42 points. Ange Driscoll was next best (a day late) with 38.

Inverell golfers Nathan Waters and Jason Shaw excelled in the Glen Innes Highland Classic 4BBB over the weekend. The pair were scratch winners on both days and hence overall. They finished with 65 and 67 off the stick and 10 under par for the two days.
