27 visitors from across the New England and North West joined Inverell players for our Vets Open Day on Tuesday. It was a very pleasant and enjoyable day with good weather, good company and good food. Winners for the day were - Division 1 - Bob Watson, 41, Dave Worgan, 39, and Steve Glover. Division 2 - Phil Thomas, 43, Graham Moore, 37, and Dave Ryan, 37. Division 3 - Don McRae, 40, Barry Young, 39, and Doug Scott, 37. Scratch winner was Shane Thomson followed by Jim Shadlow.

The ladies played a Canadian Foursomes on Wednesday. Wendy Alexander & Di Uebergang were the winners with 72.75. Runners up were Val Smith & Anne Peters with 76.125.

Gary Sharpe was the winner of Thursday's 12-hole comp with 32 points. Phil Thomas, 31, was runner-up and Dave Ryan took 3rd with 29 points. Gary also won the putting and Leon Fox was nearest the pin.

Wendy Alexander had another very good round to win the ladies 18-hole stableford on Friday. She finished with 40 points. Sandy Cook was runner-up.

Also on Friday, Anne Peters won the ladies 9-hole stableford. She recorded 16 points, 1 ahead of Di Shadlow. Lynne Lamrock and Jacqui Watson were next with 14's.

Jeremy Tickle won Friday's 9-hole Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Tradies Comp with 27 points. Jesse Speed was next with 25 points.

The men played a par comp on Saturday. Young Beau Payne had a brilliant round to finish with +10. This was 5 shots ahead of his father, Todd, who finished in 2nd place. Beau, playing off 27, recorded 8 pars - well done young man. Jono Alliston and Darren Pithers were next with +3's and were followed by Jim Shadlow with +2. Tom Lewis, Gary Sharpe, Bob Watson, Brady Lennon and Peter Lane each finished with +1.

Another of our young players recorded a brilliant round in Sunday's medley stableford. Ryan Kinnear finished 2 under par, 68 off the stick and with 41 points. He finished with 4 birdies, 12 pars and 2 bogeys.
