Golf Report for the week ending 16/10/2022

Shirley Horwood & Marilyn Young shared the win in Monday's ladies vets.

Peter Lane maintained his good form to take out Tuesday men's vets with 38 points in a countback with Steve Glover. Dick Hudson took 3rd with 37 points and he was followed by Jim Shadlow, 36, Mark Lane, 35, and Greg Brabant in a countback with 33 points. Nearest the pins went to Rowan Butler, Ron Cheshire and Steve Glover who also won the putting. John Henderson was the winner of the Super vets.

The Wednesday ladies played a 3-ball team par event. The winning team, made up of Jan Frater, Marilyn Young and Helen Edwards finished with plus 10. Sandy Cook, Teena Myler and Susie Urquhart finished with plus 8 as did Julie Clark, Leonie Davison and Judy Ditton. Nearest the pin was Bron Thorley.

Graham Moore, 28 points, won Thursday's 12-hole comp. Des Douglass and Dave Ryan took the next two spots with 27 points. Nearest the pin was Rodney Loy while Rod Jones picked up the putting prize.

Golf was washed out yet again on Friday.'s stableford.

The loss of 12 shots over 2 weeks wasn't enough to hold Liam McDonald back from another win. Liam finished with +5 in Saturday's par event for the men, 2 ahead of Jack Jeffery. Ben Watling and Ben Davis were next with +1 and then a group of 5 players finished square with the card.

Trudi Tonkin was the best of the ladies finishing with 35 stableford points.

Nigel Hill had a long awaited win in Sunday's medley stableford. Playing off a handicap of 8. Nigel blitzed the field when he finished with 41 points. Next best were Steve Glover, 36 points and Justin Bushell and Jason Pomfrett, 34.
