

Weekly Golf Report 8/2/2026

Inverell Golf Club website

<https://www.inverellgolfclub.com/>

Mal Dickson, after recent knee replacements, performed extra well in Tuesday's veterans comp. He finished with an outstanding 43 points, 4 shots clear of the next best. A number of payers are now checking their knees. Nick Glover was next best with 39, followed by Trevor Kiernan and Gary Lamrock with 38's, and then Jim Shadlow with 37.

Peter Lloyd won the Super Vets.

It's great to see good numbers, 20 players, turning up for the ladies comps on Wednesday.

Casey Trevithick won the ladies 18-hole comp in a countback with Denise Bryant. Each finished with 38 points. Sandy Cook was next with 36.

There was another countback in the ladies 9-hole comp the same day. Bronwyn Thorley. Won in a countback with Sandra Williams. Each finished with 20 points. Julie Clark and Helen Tickle were next with 18 points each.

The Thursday 12-hole comp was won by Des Campbell with 31 points. Brian Winmill and Bob Brown were next with 27's. Des Douglas won the putting and Pierre Pudig the nearest the pin.

Pat Pickering took out Friday's ladies 9-hole comp in a 3-way countback. Pat, Sandra Williams and Alison Finney each finished with 18 points.

Lynne Lamrock was best in the 18-hole comp. She finished with 36 points.

Clayton Pollock had another great round to finish with nett 65 and take out Saturday's Lawrence and Hanson's Monthly Mug. Grade winners were A Grade - Steve Glover, 66, B Grade - Ken Austin, 70, C Grade - Sam McLennan, 66, and D Grade - Peter Wallace, 72. Others to record good scores were Nico Alliston and Tom Kennedy, 67's, Jake Campbell, 68, and Mick Kinnear, 69.

Lou Cathie was best in Saturday's ladies stableford with 37 points.

Sunday's medley stableford was taken out by Beau Payne with an outstanding 42 points. Others to perform well were Michael Williams, 38, and Harry Edmonds and Steve Glover, 37.

