There was no official vets comp on Tuesday, however 20 players turned up and had a social game. Phil Thomas was best in when he finished with 42 points. Jeff Roberts was next with 40. They were followed by Trevor Kiernan, Darrell Hughes, Peter Lane and Jason Finlen, each with 38 points.

Sandy Cook won the ladies 9-hole comp on Wednesday with 20 points. Jan Frater was next with 18 and she was followed by Julie Clark, Helen Edwards and Leigh Hobbs, each with 17 points.

New Years Eve ambrose sponsored by Payne Racing was won by the team of Matt Cutmore, Troy and Clayton Pollock.

Ryan Kinnear started the year well with a 1 over par, 71 and 39 points, in the New Years Day stableford. Ryan recorded 5 birdies and 8 pars in his round. Jason Finlen was next with 37 points and an eagle on the 15th. David Hawker, Rowan Butler and Nigel Hill each finished with 35 points.

Di Uebergang won Friday's 9-hole comp for the women. She finished with 23 points and was followed by Jan Frater with 21. Sandy Cook and Helen Lockwood were close behind on 20 points.

Gary Hadland won Friday's Tradies comp with 30 points. Ben Hosking was runner-up with 29.

75 men hit off in the Lawrence and Hanson Monthly Mug on Saturday. Tony Baldwin was the winner of the Mug with an impressive nett 66. Grade winners were A Grade - Gary Hadland in a countback with Ted Edmonds on nett 70, B Grade - Jeremy Tickle, 68, C Grade - Rocky Roger, 67, and D Grade - Troy Pollock, 70. Others to perform below their handicap were Tom Murphy, 68, and Todd Payne, Trevor Kiernan and Gary Lamrock, 69. Well done to Mat O'Reilly who managed an eagle on the 15th with a driver, 3 wood and a putt.

Sunday's medley stableford was won by Fergus Roger. His 40 points was 6 points clear of second placed Harper Grove. Nick Glover was another 1 behind on 33.
