Tuesday's men's vets was a 2-person ambrose. Because of the numbers there was one team of 3 and they managed to pick up the 1st prize. That was Rowan butler, Peter Lane and Shayne Edmonds. Steve Kent and Jeff Roberts were placed 2nd, Larry Finney and Shaun O'Brien 3rd, and Nick Heagney and Gordon Dean 4th. Nearest the pin was Ron Cheshier twice and Peter Lane.

Wednesday was another miserable day and the ladies wisely opted to stay indoors. Rodney Loy, 30 points, was the winner of Thursday's 12-hole comp in a countback with Herb Cox. Ken Uebergang was next best with 28. Ken Luxford was nearest the pin and Greg Brabant won the putting. Highlight of the day was Trevor Kiernan's Hole-In-One on the 4th.

Friday's ladies stableford saw Pat Pickering come out on top with 34 points. Lyn O'Brien was next best with 33.

The men's fourball championship was played on Saturday and Glen Cross and Matt Mikaere combined to win the event with 49 points. Nick Glover and Nigel Hill were 2 points behind and they were followed by 5 pairs on 45 points. Terry Gleeson and Liam McDonald scored 57 points but were not eligible to win the four ball. Phil and Mick Fox were the scratch winners in a countback with Tony Baldwin and Ian Jeffery. Naomi Marshall had an impressive round to finish with 40 points in the ladies stableford. Sandy Cook was 2nd with 37 points.

Sunday's medley stableford was taken out by Nick Glover. It was a diamond day for Nick when he finished with 43 points, 6 shots clear of Josh Layton.

It will be a big week this week with the Inverell Vets Open to be played on Tuesday and the ladies VW scramble, a four-person ambrose, on Wednesday. Both events have players booked in from across the New England. The men also have players from Moree, Goondiwindi and Warialda entered.

The next round of the Marquart Jug is to be completed by September 11. The Mills Plate draw and completion date will be available shortly.
