Monday's women's vets comp was won by Julie McRae. Ann Peters was runner-up.

Jim Shadlow was the winner of Tuesday's vets with 38 points. Runner-up was Larry Finney. Peter Lane was the Top 9 winner while Rowan Butler, Mark Lane and Peter Wallis picked up balls for taking the next 3 spots. Don Sims was the super-vet's winner. Nearest the pins went to Larry Finney twice and Rowan Butler while Jim Shadlow won the putting.

Sandra Williams had a great game on Wednesday, finishing with 38 stableford points. Leonie Davison also went well to pick up 36 points. They were followed by Trudi Tonkin, 33, and Jan Frater, 32.

Thursday's 12-hole comp produced a very close finish with Graham Moore, Ron Cheshire and Greg Brabant finishing in that order in a countback when each recorded 25 points. Ken Luxford won the putting and Ean Perkins the nearest the pin.

Sandy Cook was back in the winner's circle when she finished top of Friday's stableford with 35 points. Sandra Williams was 2nd with 33.

Dave Martel continued his good run when he took out Saturday's men's stroke with an impressive nett 65. Paul Amos produced another good score, nett 68, and was runner up after taking the nett comp last Saturday. His 2nd place was in a countback with Bob Cook, and Adam Paton. Ben butler finished with 69 and Ian Jeffery and Gary Hadland with 70.

Brenda Zabaks won the women's stableford with 34 points, 3 points clear of Trudi Tonkin.

Sunday's stroke event was won by John Stansfield who carded a brilliant nett 65 under difficult conditions. John was the only player under his handicap for the day. Nick Cumming, nett 70, Dave Worgan, 72, and Phil Fox, Jim Shadlow and Gary Hadland each with 73, were the best of the rest.
