Steve Glover and Peter Hall each finished Tuesday's men's vets with 39 points. Steve won in a countback. Rowan Butler was next with 37 and placegetters were Rob Walters, Gordon Dean and Trevor Kiernan, each with 36 points. Nearest the pins were Trevor Kiernan, Peter Lane and Gordon Dean while Rowan Butler won the putting.

John Henderson won the Super Vets comp.

Correcting an error, Jan Frater was the winner of the ladies Monthly Medal playoff the week before last. Last Wednesday the ladies played a 3-person ambrose. The winning team was Lou Cathie, Naomi Marshall and Marlene Ballinger. Gloria Winmill, Ann Coote and Teena Myler were runners up.

Thursday's 12-hole comp was a 4BBB this week. The top score of 34 points was recorded by 2 likely lads, John Watts and Greg Brabant. There was a 4-way countback to determine 2nd place with Barry Croft and Rod Jones coming out on top and followed by Herb Cox and Ken Luxford. Kevin Campbell was nearest the pin.

No results available for Friday's ladies stableford.

Geoff Caban had a brilliant round on Saturday to take out Inverell Golf Club's December Sutton insurance brokers monthly mug. Geoff recorded a nett 63, 6 under his handicap to finish 2 shots clear of 2nd placed Matt Sparke. Tristan Irwin finished with 66, Tom Kennedy and Glen Cross with 67 and Morgan Reece, Graham Moore and Tony Baldwin, 69.

The past 12 Monthly Mug winners played off for the 2022 Gold Mug on Saturday. Graham Moore was the winner when he was the highest placed winner.

Leonie Davison was the best of the ladies on Saturday with 40 points.

The 2nd of the major 4 ball match plays, the Mills Plate, was also completed over the weekend when Mick Fox and Ross Chilcott defeated Jeremy Tickle and Jason Pomfrett. The match was a very close affair with play going to the 19th hole before it was decided.

Sunday's medley stableford was won by Nigel Hill, 35 points, in a countback with Greg Bushell.

It is worth noting that two eagles were recorded over the weekend. Glen Cross recorded one on 8th on Saturday and Nick Glover on the 15th on Sunday.
