

Weekly Golf Report 3/4/2022

Inverell Golf Club website

Check it out

<https://www.inverellgolfclub.org/>

The club thanks Julie Petersen for her wonderful contribution to our club over the last 16 years and wish her well in her retirement.

A very successful Junior 'Get into Golf' Day was held on Sunday with 60 kids taking up the offer of free lessons and a game. Our thanks go to the club board members, players and other volunteers who assisted the two Pros in running the event.

Thanks also go to the Sapphire Wind Farm for the $3000 Community Grant and the volunteers lead by Anthony Hyde that have enabled the upgrade of the pump shed on the 17th.

Monday's women's vets and Tuesday's men's vets were washed out this week.

Wednesday's women played a 3-person ambrose. Players were encouraged to include a newcomer friend in their group. The winning team was Trudi Tonkin, Jackie Watson and Julie Clark. Runner-up team was Bronwyn Thorley, Marilyn Young and Helen Edwards. A highlight of the day was an eagle on the 8th for Helen Tickle.

Steve Glover was the winner of Thursday's men's 12-hole comp with 27 points. Peter Payne and Brian Winmill were next best with 26 points. Steve Glover won the nearest the pin and Herb Cox the putting.

Brenda Zabaks was best in for Friday's women's stableford with 34 points. Next best was Sandra Williams with 31.

Well over 20 players turned up for Friday's 'Tradie Comp'. Daniel Brown was the winner of with 22 points.

Sixty players hit off in Saturday's Sutton Insurance Brokers Monthly Mug. Bob Cook, with nett 67, was the winner in a countback with B and C grade winners, Matt O'Reilly and Tony Driscoll. A grade winner was Tony Baldwin with nett 68. John Green, Mark Baldwin, Adam Paton and Matt McHarg also finished with 68. They were followed by six players with nett 69. Nearest the pins went to Tony Baldwin, Bob Cook and Steve Kent.

Wendy Alexander had a great round on Saturday to finish with 40 points in the women's stableford. Sandy Cook was next closest with 32.

Sunday's Medley stableford was won by Rowan Butler with 37 points while Barry Croft took out the RSM social comp with 31 points.

Coming up this week

Monday – women’s vets stableford hitting off at 8:30

Tuesday - men’s vets stableford hitting off at 8:30.

Wednesday – women’s par event hitting off at 8:30.

Thursday - men’s 12-hole comp.

Friday - women’s stableford and later ‘Tradie Comp’ hitting-off any time between 1 and 5pm.

Saturday – Both the men and the women play a stableford. The men’s is the last chance to play the semi-final of the Presidents Cup. Dave Worgan now plays Larry Finney for one spot in the final while Steve Kent plays Anthony Hyde for the other.

Sunday April 3 – medley stableford.

The Dash for Cash – finished for time being.

There is lots of golf coming up – (Note - registration forms available at the club house or on the Inverell Golf Club website for some events)

The 4-person ambrose Scramble qualifier will be held next Sunday, April 10 while the Easter Cup 4-ball will be held the following Saturday, April 16.

Nominations have come in from throughout NSW and from Queensland for the New England ‘Vet’s Week of Golf’. Play will be in Inverell starting Tuesday April 19, and then Thursday and Friday with a information and registration afternoon 4pm on the Sunday prior to play.

Saturday, April 23 will be the Diggers Cup and the next day will be the NEDGA District Championships.

Sunday May 1 will be the Rotary Charity Day.

