The Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Members Saturday draw back to $300. David McLennan was drawn but did not played on the day.

The Vineyard Tiles and Appliances Sunday's Members draw is now worth $650. Wasn't drawn this week.

Tradies Comp for Friday 13th was won by EJ with 21 points. Mat O'Reilly was 2nd with 20.

The ladies vets played an enjoyable social game on Monday.

David Hawker finished off a good 3 weeks of golf by winning the Tuesday's men's vets with 39 points. This gave him a total of 113 for the 3 games and the vets monthly mug by 8 points. Dave Ryan was 2nd in the Tuesday comp with 37 points. Ball winners were Mark Lane, 34, Mal Dickson, 33, and Tim Moses in a 4-way countback with 31 points. Nearest the pins went to Tim Moses, Leon Fox and Dave Ryan who also won the putting.

Leonie Davison had a wonderful round on Wednesday's to take out the ladies stableford with 41 points. Next best was Leigh Hobbs with 36 followed by Sandra Williams with 35.

It was a very close affair at Thursday's 12-hole comp with 3 players involved in a countback for the top spots. Greg Brabant, Ross Tutt and Steve Kent each finished with 26 points. Greg took 1st prize in the countback, Ross 2nd and Steve 3rd. Greg was also nearest the pin while Kevin Campbell won the putting.

Sandra Williams won Friday's ladies stableford with 36 points followed by Di Shallow with 34.

Stephen Holland won Saturday's men's stableford with an impressive 40 points. Andrew Walsh was 1 point behind on 39 followed by Paul Amos and Sam Williamson on 38. John Stansfield, Tony Driscoll, Ben Davis, Mat O'Reilly and Corey Alexander each finished with 37.

The ladies played a par event on Saturday. Sue Urquhart was best in with -1.

Sunday was a sponsor's Day with no comp running.

Leonie Davison finished with 41 points on Wednesday and thought she should have her photo in this week’s report.

Stephen Holland finished with 40 points on Saturday - this is the best I could do to express his mood without a photo
