Anne Peters was the winner of Monday's ladies vet's. Helen Tickle was runner up.

Greg Brabant had a wonderful round to finish with 37 points and take out Tuesday's vets. Rowan Butler was 2nd with 35 points and he was followed by Jim Shadlow, Trevor Kiernan and Col Flood with 34 points. Nearest the pins went to Larry Finney, Simon Smith and Jim Shadlow. Jim also won the putting comp. Ross Tutt won his 2nd monthly mug in a row. Peter Lloyd was the best of Super Vets.

The Wednesday ladies have had a terrible run with weather throughout winter and this last week was no different with rain falling yet again. 8 players braved the elements on Wednesday to finish the stableford Comp. Anne Peters was best in with 39 points under difficult conditions. Di Shadlow was next with 34 followed by Jan Frater with 30.

The course was closed due to rain on Thursday and Julie McRae was the best in a small field on Friday.

Lou Cathie was the winner of Saturday's ladies stableford in a countback with Sue Urquhart. Top score of 32 was an indication of the tough, wet, conditions.

The conditions didn't worry Bob Cook as he produced a good round, finishing with 38 points and winning the men's stableford. Rowan Butler, 36, was next followed by Gary Hadland, Jeff Roberts, Rod Jones, Steve Kent and Sam Swan, each with 35 points. Highlight for the day would have to be Steve Kent's eagle on the 8th. He didn't see it go in but has a lengthy description of the shot he played. Well done Steve.

Rowan Butler was out for another game on Sunday and finished with 36 points again to take out the medley stableford. Greg Bushell was next with 32.

The juniors had another successful day with more than 20 players turning up for their competition. Our thanks go to Ben Davis, Anthony Hyde, Trudi Tonkin and Sandy Cook and the many other helpers that have been working tirelessly on the junior development. The Juniors have an Inverell Open coming up October 30 sponsored by Tait Hino and with prizes valued at $1500.
