Dave Worgan had a brilliant round to win Tuesday's vets comp with 44 points. Chris Bell was runner-up with 39 and he was followed by Gordon Dean, 38, Al Sheather, 37, and Graham Moore and Dick Hudson with 36's. Barry Young, Bob Watson and Gary Sharpe finished with 35 points each.

Denise Bryant won the ladies 18-hole stroke on Wednesday. She finished with nett 71, 2 shots ahead of Sue Urquhart.

The ladies Wednesday 9-hole comp was taken out by Sandra Williams with 22 points. Gloria Winmill was only 1 point behind and she was followed by Bronwyn Thorley with 19 points.

Rod Jones was the winner of Thursday's 12-hole comp with an impressive 33 points - that's nearly 3 points a hole. Rod hasn't won for a while and probably won't for another while once the handicapper gets to him. Max Uebergang was next with 31 points followed by Peter Payne with 28. Brian Winmill won the nearest the pin and Herbie Cox the putting.

Leigh Hobbs won the ladies 9-hole stableford on Friday. She finished with an outstanding 24 points, 2 points ahead of Jacqui Watson. Pat Pickering was next with 20 points.

Beau Payne won Friday's 9-hole Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Tradies Comp with 28 points. Steve Glover was next with 23 points.

The men played a stableford on Saturday. Bruce Garrett had a brilliant game to finish 9 under his handicap with 45 points. He finished on fire, paring the bottom 9 with 3 birdies, 4 pars, a bogey and a double bogey and he then went home to watch his Roosters have a big win. Next nearest were Tony Park, Gary Sharpe and Dave Worgan, each with 37 points. Gary was best in A Grade, Bruce in B grade and Tony C Grade.

Sunday's medley stableford was won by Jacqui Watson. Jacqui finished with 43 points, 3 ahead of her husband, Bob. Justin Bushell was next best, finishing with 37 points.
