

Golf Report for the Week Ending 3/7/2022.

Tuesday's vet's played a 4-ball aggregate after drawing partners. Jim Shadlow and Graham Moore won the day with 65 points. Allen Bujack and Greg Brabant were runners-up and Larry Finney and Jack Hepi next best. Nearest the pins went to Don Sims, Rowan butler and Larry Finney and Dave Worgan was the best of the Super Vets.

The women played their Keno 2-person Ambrose qualifier on Wednesday. Helen Lockwood and Helen Edwards combined to win the day a score of 70.25. Wendy Alexander and Sue Urquhart were runners up, 0.5 behind. Wendy and Sue go into the 2nd round as the two Helens did not wish to progress.

Darryl Campbell was the winner of Thursday's 12-hole comp with 31 points. Peter Payne, 29, and Ean Perkins, 28, took the next two spots. Barry croft was nearest the pin and Graham Moore won the putting.

Friday's event was a ladies stableford which attract 13 players which was taken out by Anne Peters with 34 points from Lorna Smith 32 points, Di Shadlow and Helen Tickle both recorded 31 points.

The winner of Saturday's Sutton Insurance Monthly Mug was Mick Tanner with 68 net after a 3 way count back. A grade went to Ben Watling with 68 net, B grade to Matt Mikaere 68 net while C & D grade had Ken Luxford in front with 71 net after a countback. Other notable score were Nick Glover 69 net, Steve Glover, Arron Coleman and Jim Shadlow all on 71 net. Nearest the pin at the 4th Mick Tanner, 6th Harry Edmonds, 12th Ted Edmonds and the 17th was Gary Hadland.

Sunday was a single stableford and was won by Brendan Power with 36 points from Harley Tickle 34 points. Not far off the pace were Matt Reece and Cody Woodward both on 33 points.

.