A previous week result not reported at the time. Easter Monday's holiday comp was won by Jacqui Watson. She finished with an outstanding 43 points. Next nearest was Bob Watson with 39 and he was followed by Jai Tasker and Jono Cox with 35's.

Bronwyn Thorley was best of the ladies in their 18-hole stableford on Wednesday. She finished with 38 points. Next were Julie Clark and Libby Lennon with 36's. Anne Peters won the ladies 9-hole comp the same day.

Jono Alliston was the winner of the 9-hole Scott Mackenzie Tradies Comp. he finished with 30 points, 5 ahead of 2nd placed Todd Payne.

34 pairs took part in Saturday's medley, 2-person ambrose. Results will be published next week.

Sunday's medley stableford was won by Mick Fox in a countback with Rowan Butler. Each finished with 35 points.

During the week the vets held the Sapphire City Week of Golf. It was a big week for the club. Players from across NSW as well as Queensland, Victoria and even Tasmania came to play in the Veterans Week of Golf. If you check out the winners (Next page) you will see the large numbers of towns involved. Competitions took place Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. There were over 90 players booked in to play each day. This was down on the usual numbers as some travelers pulled out due to the fuel situation - a big cost when towing a caravan. The week started with registration and BBQ on Sunday and concluded with a presentation lunch after play on Friday.

Our thanks go to Major Sponsors, Oak Tree Retirement Villages. Thanks also go to NSWVGA, Inverell RSM and RSL, Inverell Caravan Park, H Hardware, D & G Jewellery, Wade St Meats, Boss Built, Inverell Sporties and Tourism Inverell for your support. Results and photos are on the next page.
