Visitors, Gordon Newton and Wendy Thompson scored 38 points to take top spots in Easter Monday's medley stableford. John Daley was next with 37 and he was followed by Nick Lehman, 35.

The Vet's week of golf was played Tuesday, Thursday and Friday with players coming from across NSW and Queensland. Single stablefords were played on Tuesday and Thursday and scores were added for a 36-hole event to determine the NSWVGA trophy for New England. Friday was a medley 4-ball-best-ball. Without going into all the results - Local golfer, Steve Kent, took out the men's trophy and Jenni Holland from Ocean Shores won the women's. It was another outstanding week of golf thanks to the planning and work of convenor Jim Shadlow, wife Di and a team of helpers. Reports, more detailed results for each day and photos are on the website inverellgolfclub.org in the veterans section.

The local women squeezed in a game on Wednesday with Bronwyn Thorley taking out the single stableford. Bronwyn finished with 35 points. She was followed by Leonie Davison and Anne Coote with 34 points.

Saturday saw the Diggers Cup four-ball played with Adam Paton and Ian Jeffery combining to take out the event with 46 points. Next best were Adrian King and Will Williamson with 45 and then Jason Pomfrett and Harley Tickle with 44.

Saturday also saw the completion of the Presidents Cup. Larry Finney held on to win the cup on the 17th hole in a playoff with Anthony Hyde.

Alison Rose won the women's stableford in a countback with Wendy Alexander.

The NEDGA Championships were played on Sunday with locals taking out the major prizes. Phil Fox with a score of 70 was the gross winner in a countback with Tim Murray from Armidale. Another Inverell player, 8-year-old James Davis won the open nett with nett 61. This was one better than Steve Glover.
