

Weekly Golf Report 8/5/2022

Inverell Golf Club website

Check it out

<https://www.inverellgolfclub.org/>

Pat Pickering was the winner of Monday's women's vets and Gillian Black the runner-up.

Rowan Butler was in the winner's circle again with 35 points. He took out Tuesday's vets in a countback with Jim Shadlow and Kevin Campbell. Next best were Steve Kent and Col Flood with 33 and 32 respectively. Nearest the pins went to Kevin Campbell, Gordon Dean and Geoff Bucknell.

The women completed the first round of their Club Championships on Wednesday. Liz Hobday made a strong start and with 82 off the stick will be hard to stop winning her 22nd club championship. She has a 7-shot lead over Sandy Cook, Wendy Alexander and Sandra Williams. B Grade leader is Jan Frater who is 4 shots ahead of Julie Clark.

Julie McRae, with a great nett 61, finished 8 shots clear of Jan Frater in the overall nett and also has a commanding lead in the C Grade gross. Round 2 of the women's will be played this coming Wednesday.

Some brave souls turned up and completed this week's Thursday 12-hole comp. The winner was Ken Luxford with 31 points. He was a point ahead of Kevin Campbell who was another point clear of Rodney Loy. Nearest the pin was Barry Croft and Steve Kent won the putting.

Luke Woodhouse was the winner of last Friday's Tradies comp in a countback with Anthony Hyde. The Tradies comp is sponsored by Scott Mackenzie Lawyers.

It was a very close finish in the Sutton Insurance Brokers Monthly Mug on Saturday. There was a countback to determine the winner when five players returned with nett 66. Ben Davis, 13 pars and a birdie, finished with the prized Mug while Geoff Caban, Rod Jones and James Davis picked up A, B and C Grade prizes, each with nett 66. An unlucky Tony Baldwin was in the countback but missed all the major prizes.

Matt McHarg playing off a handicap of 1 finished with 15 pars and 2 birdies and nett 67 while Marc Borgas scored came home with a nett 68.

Nearest the pins went to Paul Amos, Gary Hadland, Ian Jeffery and Phil Fox.

Sandy Cook was the best for the women on Saturday. She finished the stableford with 33 points, one ahead of Naomi Marshall.

Sunday morning's RSM social comp was won by Darrell Hughes.

Tom Nelson was the standout performer in Sunday's medley stableford. Tom finished with 42 points which was 8 better than 2nd placed Tom Murphey.

Coming Up this week.

Monday – Women's vets – 8:30 start

Tuesday – men's vets stableford now a 9am start. Note John Henderson has organized a small group of vets players to hit off at 10:30 on Tuesday. They will play 9 holes and finish with the 18-hole vets and then join them for presentation and social interaction. Anyone interested in joining the group will be most welcome.

Wednesday – 2nd Round of Women’s Championships They have a seeded draw starting from 9am.

Thursday – men’s 12-hole comp – 8:30 start.

Friday – women’s stableford – timesheet. Tradies 9-hole comp in the afternoon. Note – open invitation - you don’t have to be a “Tradie’

Saturday – 1st Round of the men’s Championship with the 2nd round on Sunday and par event for the women.

Men’s Club Championships will continue May 21 and 22.