Friday was a washout because of the rain on Thursday and Friday.

Saturday's comp was changed from the monthly mug to a stableford for the men because of the wet conditions and forecast of more rain. The course was better than expected and the weather beautiful.

Luke Woodhouse was the star for the day having his best ever round. Playing off a handicap of 20 he finished with 83 off the stick and 43 points. He was 7 points clear of the next best scores which were handed in by Matt McHarg and Tim Moses. Matt, playing off +3, finished with a 3 under par, 63. His round included 5 birdies, 11 pars and 2 bogies. It's just not fair.

Next best, with 35 points, were Noah O'Neill, Harry Edmonds and Steve Glover.

Because of the possibility of rain only 2 ladies played in their stableford on Saturday. Trudi Tonkin was best with 30 points.

Many players who decided not to play Saturday took to the course on Sunday to set what must be a record number of players, 53, for a Sunday medley stableford. Michael Williams was the standout player. He finished with 42 points. Brady Mather, 39 points, was back with another impressive performance to take 2nd spot. Next best were Jason Pomfrett, 38, Luke Woodhouse and Greg Bushell, 37, and Jai Tasker, Aaron Hatcher and Harry Edmonds, 36.
