This last week of golf has been disrupted with rain causing one cancellation and low numbers on the other days because of wet conditions.

The winner of last Saturday's Sutton Insurance Monthly Mug was Mick Tanner with 68 nett after a 3 way count back. A grade went to Ben Watling with 68 nett, B grade to Matt Mikaere 68 nett while C & D grade had Ken Luxford in front with 71 nett after a countback. Other notable score were Nick Glover 69 nett, Steve Glover, Arron Coleman and Jim Shadlow all on 71 nett. Nearest the pin at the 4th Mick Tanner, 6th Harry Edmonds, 12th Ted Edmonds and the 17th was Gary Hadland.

Sunday was a single stableford and was won by Brendan Power with 36 points from Harley Tickle 34 points. Not far off the pace were Matt Reece and Cody Woodward both on 33 points.

A steady drizzle throughout play led to low scores for the 12 players that completed the 18 holes at Tuesday's vets. Gordon Dean was the winner again with 33 points. He was one point clear of John Tom, Graham Moore and Trevor Kiernan. John Tom picked up two nearest the pins while Gordon Dean won the other and the putting. Peter Lloyd was the best of the super-vets.

Wednesday was a washout.

Only 11 players turned up for Thursday's 12-hole comp on a wet course. Rod Loy was the winner with 31 points. Graham Moore and Allen Bujack took the next two spots with 28 points. Herb Cox was nearest the pin.

It was a small field again for Friday's ladies stableford. Bronwyn Thorley was the winner with 33 Points followed by Wendy Alexander with 32.

Nick Glover took the prize on Saturdays men's stableford with 39 points. John Stansfield and Lachlin Coakes were next best with 36 points. They were followed by Bob Watson, 35 and then Anthony Hyde, Wil Williamson and Joe Holahan with 34.
