Dave Worgan managed a hole-in one- last weekend. Well done Dave.

The ladies vets continued to enjoy a relaxing social round on Monday. Anyone is welcome to join in Monday's at 9am.

Tuesday's men's vets comp was taken out by Simon Smith with 36 points and 2 points ahead of 2nd placed Peter Lane. Jack Hepi, Jim Shadlow and Max Uebergang were ball winners with 33 points. Nearest the pins went to Gary Sharp, Greg Brabant and Bob Watson while Simon Smith won the putting. Rowan Butler was the Monthly Mug winner with a 3 round total of 104. Peter Lloyd picked up the Super Vets prize.

The ladies played the final round of their Club Championships on Wednesday. Helen Edwards maintained her lead from last week to become the 2023 Club Champion with a gross score of 286. Helen also became the Nett Champion. Lou Cathie had a solid last round to move up the ladder and finished overall runner up with a total gross score of 300. Lou was Division 2 winner 1 shot ahead of Jan Frater, while Anne Coote finished up the winner of Division 3 with 353.

Two non-finalists took top place in the ladies daily stroke event on Wednesday. Trudi Tonkin and Di Shadlow each finished with nett 76, Lou Cathie, 77, and Helen Tickle, 78.

Gary Sharpe took out Thursday's 12-hole comp with 28 points. Graham Moore took 2nd spot and Kevin Campbell 3rd with scores of 27 and 26 points. Trevor Kiernan won the putting with 17 putts.

Helen Tickle was the best in Friday's ladies stableford when she finished with 30 points. Di Shadlow was only one point behind in 2nd spot.

16 players hit off from the blue tees in Friday's Tradies 9-hole Comp. Josh Vicary was the winner of with 24 points. Corey Alexander took 2nd place with 22 points.

Trudi Tonkin was the winner of the ladies stableford played on Saturday. She finished with 32 points and was followed by Leonie Davison with 31.

On Saturday Jeremy Tickle was the best with a nett 67, very handy for a championship round. Ken Austin and Anthony Hyde each finished with 69, Harry Edmonds, 70, and Tony Baldwin and Ross Tutt, 71.

Congratulations go to Nathan Waters who held on to win the Inverell Men's Club championship for his first time on Saturday.

It was a very tight finish with Harry Edmonds only 1 shot behind going down the 16th. Harry dropped 2 shots on that hole, clawed 1 back on the 17th and squared the last to remain 2 shots behind at the finish. Harry was the nett winner for A grade.

Mick Fox took out A Reserve 6 shots clear of Jeremy Tickle who was the nett winner for that division.

Steve Kent was a clear winner in B grade while Paul Amos took the nett prize. Ken Austin was the winner of C grade; 6 shots clear of Graham Moore who was the nett winner.

Ross Tutt was the big winner in D grade with Glen Cross the nett winner.

Matt Reece was the junior winner and Steve Kent the veteran.

In Sunday's nett competition, Jeremy Budda Deen was the winner in a countback with Jason Shaw. Both finished with 69. Harry Edmonds was next with 70, followed by Steve Kent, 71, and Simon Smith and Jim Shadlow, 72.
