The Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Members Saturday draw was won on Saturday. Dave Wargent was drawn and played on the day winning $500.

The Vineyard Tiles and Appliances Sunday's Members draw is now worth $1200.

Jonathan Lea was drawn but did not play Sunday.

While many members have been helping, a special thanks go to President, Anthony Hyde, and Captain, Mat O'Reilly, for the unending hours they have spent organising this coming weekends Sapphire Cup. All appears set for a great 3 days this coming Friday, Saturday and Sunday with over 200 players booked in on each of Saturday and Sunday.

Bruce Garrett continued his good run to take out Tuesday's vet's golf with 42 points. Second spot was taken by Simon Smith, 37, in a countback with Greg Brabant. Bob Watson, 36, Trevor Kiernan, 35, and Larry Finney, 35, won ball prizes. Nearest the pins went to Gordon Dean, Graham Moore and Larry Finney while Bruce Garrett won the putting. Richard Black won the Super Vets.

Anne Peters was the best of the ladies in Wednesday's stableford. She finished with 36 points. Next best were Helen Edwards, Helen Lockwood and Sandy Cook, each with 32 points.

Thursday's 12-hole comp was won by Kevin Campbell with 30 points. Leon Fox was runner up with 28 points and Martin Crouch came in 3rd with 25 points. Rod Jones was nearest the pin and Kevin Campbell won the putting.

Tradies comp for Friday was won by Mat O'Reilly. 28 points, in a countback with Jeremy Tickle.

Newcomer, Noah O'Neill, playing off a handicap of 20, produced the round of his life to finish with 46 points in Saturday's men's single stableford. Noah recorded 9 pars and 1 birdie - not bad off a handicap of 20. He has now lost 7.3 off his handicap. Noah was the winner in a field of 66 players and finished 6 points clear of 2nd placed Tom Nelson and Anthony Hyde. Mat O'Reilly was next with 38 followed by Rusty Brien and Mick Tanner with 37 and Rod Jones with 36 points. Meanwhile, Cody Woodward added his name to the list of people recording an eagle on the 15th.

Sandy Cook finished 1st in the ladies stableford on Saturday. She recorded 34 points and was followed by Sue Urquhart, 33, and Trudi Tonkin with 30.

There were more good scores presented in Sunday's medley stableford. Doug Cross was the winner with 40 points. Michael Williams and Matt Mikaere finished with 39, Cody Woodward, 38, and Justin Bushell and Nick Glover 36.
