A few new incentives are on offer for a while. There are $50 lucky draws for Saturday and Sunday . Saturday sponsored by Ben Butler from aap Finance Brokers and Sunday sponsored by Bi-Rite Appliances. Todd Hughes was drawn Saturday and Sean Taylor was drawn Sunday. Neither player played on the day they were drawn so the two lots jackpot for this coming weekend.

For the Tradies Comp - players will be awarded points for playing. They will also get bonus points depending on where they finish on the day. The top player will get the most points, the 2nd player gets the next most points, etc. This comp will run until March 19. The following week, March 26, the top 10 players (the 10 with the most points for the 21 weeks) will play a shoot out with one player, the lowest scorer, dropping off after each hole. There will be a putt off in the case of equal scores.

There will also be 2 lucky draws for meat trays on Fridays.

Mick Kinnear showed some good form to win Tuesday's Vets Comp. He finished with 39 points, 2 ahead of John Tom. Steve Glover and Mark Lane were next with 36's and they were followed by Rowan Butler, David Hawker and Kevin Campbell with 33's.

The ladies played a mystery stableford on Wednesday. Julie McRae won the day with 38 points and Helen Edwards was runner-up with 36. In the mystery draw Julie McRae and Cath Lane were drawn together and took the Bab's Lorraine vouchers with 71 points.

The ladies 4BBB matchplay championships was completed Wednesday in miserable conditions. Congratulations go to Casey Trevithick and Helen Lockwood who took out the match on the 17th, 2 up with 1 to go against Helen Tickle and Lynne Lamrock.

Unbelievable - no Thursday's 12-hole comp due to rain.

No ladies comps on Friday either.

Ben Hosking's won Friday's 9-hole Scott Mackenzie Lawyers Tradies Comp with 24 points. Ben Hosking's and Peter Lane picked up meat tray's in the lucky draw.

The men played their foursomes stableford Championship on Saturday. The winning pair was Tom Lewis & Michael Romer in a countback with Heath Cox & Ken Austin. Morgan Reece & Jeremy Tickle were next.

Sunday's medley stableford was won by Ryan Kinnear with 35 points. Kevin Moore was next with 34.
