What a great finish it was to Inverell Golf Club's 2022 Order of Merit. Rowan Butler, Jeremy Tickle, Matt Mikaere and Anthony Hyde were all in the hunt leading into the November Monthly Mug. All four players scored well with Jeremy Tickle scoring enough points to stay in front of Matt Mikaere take out this year's Order of Merit.

As expected, James Davis, won the Hoyt Family Trophy after taking an almost unbeatable lead after last month's Monthly Mug. James finished 10 shots better than both Matt Mikaere and Adam Paton. Anthony Hyde and Geoff Caban were another 5 shots back.

Helen Tickle was the winner of Monday's ladies vets comp.

Shaun O'Brien had a wonderful round under trying conditions to win Tuesday's men's vets with 40 points. Peter Lane continued his good form to run 2nd with 39. Place getters were Jim Shadlow, 37, and Steve Glover and John Green with 35. Nearest the pins went to Greg Brabant and Jim Shadlow twice while Greg Brabant won the putting.

Sandy Cook had a brilliant round on Wednesday to win the Ladies stableford with 42 points. She finished 7 points clear of the next placed players, Wendy Alexander and Sandra Williams.

Peter Payne took out Thursday's 12-hole comp with 29 points. Jack Hepi finished with 28 and then 5 players recorded 27 points with Gordon Dean winning in a countback. Leon Fox was nearest the pin and Bill Wade won the putting.

Two ladies combined to win Saturday's Remembrance Day fourball. Lou Cathie and Teena Myler finished with 46 points to take 1st prize with Andrew Iskov and Dave Schofield 1 point back. Mick tanner and Matt Mikaere, Tony Schutz and Anthony Hyde and Steve Kent and John Green finished with 43 points to take the next 3 spots.

In the individual men's event, Cody Woodward with 38 points, finished ahead of Andrew Iskov in a countback. Marc Borgas and Tony Schutz then lead a group of 6 players on 36 points.

Sunday's medley stableford was won by Peter Schofield with 37 points. He was followed by Nick Glover and Greg Bushell with 36.
