Golf Report for the Week Ending 5/6/2022.

Monday's women's vets comp was won by Ann Peters. Helen Tickle was runner-up.

Tuesday's vets was called off due to the weather

The ladies held their Open 4-ball-best-ball in cold, windy but fine conditions on Wednesday. 76 players hit off with visitors coming from as far away as Newcastle. Guyra pair Shona Mulligan and Debra Heffernan won the day – there were thoughts that the weather suited them. Runners up were Jennifer Rogers and Wendy George also from Guyra – get my drift.

Scratch winner was the local pair of Wendy Alexander & Lynne Lamrock followed by Julie Nash & Lesley Jefferies from Armidale.

Consolation winners were Anna Keys & Kay Nash, Julie Clark & Kerry Nicholson, O'Keefe & Kay Rolfe, Leonie Davison & Ange Driscoll and Sandra Williams & Bronwyn Thorley.

Special thanks to Gaukrogers, Inverell H Hardware, Inverell Building Baaargain Centre, Campbell & Freebairn Pharmacy & Vivier Boutique for their sponsorship of the day.

Thursday's 12-hole comp was won by Greg Brabant with 29 points. Ross Tutt, 26, and Gordon Dean, 24, took 2nd and 3rd prizes. Tom Kennedy was nearest the pin and Barry Croft won the putting.

Wendy Alexander was back in the winner's circle when she took out Friday's stableford with 32 points. Helen Lockwood was runner-up.

19 men braved the weather and wet course to play in the June Sutton Insurance Monthly Mug on Saturday. Tim Moses was the winner when he finished with nett 68. Tim won in a countback with James Davis.

Grade winners were A Grade - Ben Davis, 70, B Grade – Ashley Walters, 74, and C Grade – James Davis, 68.

Trudi Tonkin was best in the women's stroke with nett 76.

Rowan Butler was the winner of Sunday's medley stableford with 38 points. Next best were Matt Reece who finished with 36, Peter Schofield, 35, and William Greentree, 33.
